IMPACT: Pending

Summary of Legislation: The bill establishes the division of lottery security within the Indiana Gaming Commission (IGC). It abolishes the existing division of security within the state Lottery Commission, and transfers its duties and powers and its employees to the new division of lottery security. It specifies the powers and duties of the division of lottery security.

The bill establishes the position of lottery internal auditor within the Indiana gaming commission. It transfers the existing internal auditor and internal audit staff of the state lottery commission to the Indiana gaming commission. It specifies the powers and duties of the new lottery internal auditor.

The bill requires the state Lottery Commission to reimburse the IGC for the costs incurred by the division of lottery security and by the lottery internal auditor in carrying out their duties.

The bill requires the state lottery commission to provide the division of lottery security and the lottery internal auditor full, free, and unrestricted access to all activities, records, property, and personnel of the state lottery commission. It provides that the powers and responsibilities of the division of lottery security and the lottery internal auditor also apply to any entity that has entered into an integrated services provider contract with the state lottery commission.
